

Everything's Fine: Application

Text: Psalm 133:1-3

Purpose: To learn how to move closer to church relationships for the purpose of having a safe place to be vulnerable and a place to be encouraged to grow.

Opening Question: What's your favorite hair product? Aftershave? Lotion? Beard oil?

Read and Discuss: Psalm 133:1-3

- 1. Why is it important to have unity in your church relationships?*
- 2. David uses the analogy of beard oil, which was different spices mixed together with olive oil, to show what unity looks like. How would you describe the blending of your small group?*
- 3. When it comes to "everything's fine," which can you relate to the most?*
 - a. I have to be seen as perfect.*
 - b. I'm the only one who...*
 - c. I can deal with it myself.*
- 4. What are the fears of being open and honest with someone about your struggles?*
- 5. What risks can you take to draw yourself closer to a few trusted people?*
- 6. How does Jesus' death and resurrection assure you that God is trustworthy?*
